Suspended for two (2) years by judgment entered May 2, 1978, to be served after his release from incarceration. While the District Attorney General in Smith County, his license was immediately suspended by the Supreme Court on October 4, 1977 after his plea of guilty of knowingly making a false statement to a bank to secure a loan of $50,000 by representing a liability of $18,000 on real estate; when, in truth, he was indebted in the amount of $179,000 and had other debts which he did not disclose.
