TENNESSEE ATTORNEY DISBARRED

On December 9, 2002, the Supreme Court of Tennessee entered an Order disbaring Dwight E. Duncan from the practice of law.

The Board of Professional Responsibility filed a Petition for Imposition of Reciprocal Discipline based upon the fact that the Nevada Supreme Court disbarred Duncan for outright abandonment of his clients and his practice.

The Tennessee Supreme Court ordered that Dwight E. Duncan be disbarred from the practice of law.

Mr. Duncan may, after five (5) years, apply for reinstatement, but he must carry the burden of proof by clear and convincing evidence that his reinstatement will not be detrimental to the integrity and standing of the bar, or the administration of justice, or be subversive to the public interest.
