LAW LICENSE OF NASHVILLE ATTORNEY SUSPENDED

On May 19, 2003, the Supreme Court of Tennessee entered an order suspending the law license of David M. Zolensky for a period of thirty days beginning May 19, 2003.

Zolensky was suspended by the Tennessee Supreme Court for Zolensky's non-compliance with Continuing Legal Education requirements beginning February 16, 2000. While suspended, Zolensky represented a client in the Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee. Specifically, Zolensky filed an answer, filed an amended complaint, attended a case management conference, served interrogatories, and participated in depositions while suspended. On September 20, 2002, Zolensky's unauthorized practice of law was reported to the Board. Zolensky self-reported his conduct to the Board on October 3, 2002.

The Board of Professional Responsibility filed a petition for discipline against Zolensky pursuant to Rule 9, Rules of the Supreme Court of Tennessee. Zolensky submitted a conditional guilty plea in exchange for a stated form of discipline. The stated form of discipline was that Zolensky would be suspended from the practice of law for a period of thirty days. Zolensky's suspension shall remain in effect until June 20, 2003.

From May 19, 2003 until June 20, 2003, Zolensky shall not use any indicia of lawyer, legal assistant or law clerk, nor maintain a presence where the practice of law is conducted. Section 18 of Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 9 requires Zolensky to notify all clients that are being represented in pending matters; all counsel and opposing counsel of the Supreme Court's order suspending him. Section 18 of Rule 9, Rules of the Supreme Court also requires Zolensky to deliver to all clients any papers or property to which they are entitled.
