MONTGOMERY COUNTY LAWYER CENSURED

On March 19, 2012, Christopher Wayne Barber, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, received a Public Censure from the Board of Professional Responsibility of the Tennessee Supreme Court.

Mr. Barber practiced law while his license was suspended. In addition, he charged an unreasonable fee in a case and failed to notify his client that his license to practice law had been suspended. Finally, Mr. Barber failed to respond to Disciplinary Counsel's requests for additional information.

Mr. Barber was Publicly Censured for violating Rules of Professional Conduct 1.3 (diligence), 1.4 (communication), 1.5 (fees), 5.5 (unauthorized practice of law), and 8.1(b) (bar admission and disciplinary matters.)

A Public Censure is a rebuke and warning to the attorney, but it does not affect the attorney's ability to practice law.

Respondent, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee
(Montgomery County)

PUBLIC CENSURE

The above complaints were filed against Christopher Wayne Barber, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, alleging certain acts of misconduct. Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 9, the Board of Professional Responsibility considered these matters at its meeting on December 9, 2011.

In the first complaint, the Respondent violated Rule 5.5 by practicing law while his license was suspended for failure to pay the Professional Privilege Tax. In the second complaint, the Respondent charged his client an unreasonable fee given the scant amount of work he performed, in violation of Rules 1.3 and 1.5. Also, he failed to notify his client that his license to practice law had been suspended in violation of Rule 1.4. Finally, the Respondent failed to respond to Disciplinary Counsel's requests for additional information in violation of Rule 8.1(b).

By the aforementioned acts, Christopher Wayne Barber has violated Rules of Professional Conduct 1.3 (diligence), 1.4 (communication), 1.5 (fees), 5.5 (unauthorized practice of law) and 8.1(b) (bar admission and disciplinary matters) and is hereby Publicly Censured for these violations.
