PUBLIC CENSURE

The above complaint was opened against Johnnie D. Bond, Jr., an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, alleging certain acts of misconduct. Pursuant to Tenn. Sup. Ct. R. 9, the Board of Professional Responsibility considered this matter at its meeting on June 14, 2024.

Mr. Bond's law license was administratively suspended due to his failure to pay his annual fee and do his IOLTA reporting. Mr. Bond admits he received notice of the suspension from the Board but states that he did not read the correspondence. Mr. Bond was engaged in the active practice of law for seven months while his law license was suspended, including filing pleadings, appearing in court, and entering agreed orders. During the suspension, Mr. Bond's website advertised that he had law offices in Memphis and Nashville, Tennessee.

By the aforementioned acts, Johnnie D. Bond, Jr., is in violation of Rules of Professional Conduct 5.5 (unauthorized practice of law) and 7.1 (communication concerning a lawyer's services) and is hereby Publicly Censured for these violations.
