SHELBY COUNTY LAWYER CENSURED

On January 15, 2021, Addie Marie Burks, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, received a Public Censure from the Board of Professional Responsibility of the Tennessee Supreme Court.

Ms. Burks received funds on a client's case in November 2019, and she delayed distributing the funds until August 2020. Also, Ms. Burks distributed all the funds directly to the client instead of first resolving existing medical liens. Ms. Burks did not have a written fee agreement for a contingency fee agreement, and she commingled a small portion of her fee with client funds when she failed to timely remove her entire fee from trust. In another matter for the same client, Ms. Burks failed to timely distribute a small amount to a medical provider for over two years.

By these acts, Addie Marie Burks has violated Rules of Professional Conduct 1.1 (competence), 1.3 (diligence), 1.15 (safekeeping funds), 1.5 (fees) and 8.4(d) (prejudice to the administration of justice) and is hereby Publicly Censured, with the requirement that she attend the Board of Professional Responsibility's Trust Account Workshop scheduled for March 2021.

A Public Censure is a rebuke and warning to the attorney, but it does not affect the attorney's ability to practice law.
