NASHVILLE ATTORNEY CENSURED

On January 12, 2007, Leroy Cain, Jr., of Nashville, Tennessee, received a Public Censure from the Board of Professional Responsibility. Cain was given notice of the Censure and did not request a hearing. Cain accepted $13,700.00 in fees regarding an estate without first seeking or obtaining court approval for his fees. The Seventh Circuit Court, Probate Division for Davidson County, Tennessee entered an Order on June 29, 2006 finding that it was improper for Cain to charge the estate a fee and demand that the fee be paid without first seeking court approval. Cain is publicly censured by the Board with the condition that Cain comply with any Probate Court Order issued in this estate regarding Cain's fees. Cain's charging and accepting the fee without first seeking or obtaining court approval violation Rules 1.5 and 8.4(a)(d) of the Tennessee Rules of Professional Conduct.

The Censure declares Cain's actions to be improper but does not limit his right to practice law.
