DAVIDSON COUNTY LAWYER CENSURED

On October 22, 2010, Yvette Y. Cain, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, received a Public Censure from the Board of Professional Responsibility of the Tennessee Supreme Court.

Ms. Cain represented a client in a post-divorce child support modification proceeding. The parties reached an agreement, and on July 6, 2005, Ms. Cain forwarded a proposed order to the clerk for entry with the court. Ms. Cain failed to monitor entry of the order with the court and discovered in August, 2006, that the order had been misplaced by the clerk and was never signed by the judge. Ms. Cain failed to act with reasonable diligence and the order was not actually signed by the judge until May 19, 2009. During the interim, Ms. Cain failed to reasonably communicate with her client about the status of the order.

By these acts, Yvette Y. Cain has violated Rules of Professional Conduct RPC 1.3 (diligence) and 1.4 (communication), and is hereby, publicly censured for these violations. A Public Censure is a rebuke and warning to the attorney, but it does not affect the attorney's ability to practice law.

SUPREME COURT OF TENNESSEE

IN RE: YVETTE Y. CAIN BPR NO. 17282
Respondent, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee
(Davidson County)

FILE NO. 32204-5-KB

PUBLIC CENSURE

The above complaint was filed against Yvette Y. Cain, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, alleging certain acts of misconduct. Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 9, the Board of Professional Responsibility considered these matters at its meeting on September 10, 2010.

Respondent represented Complainant in a post-divorce child support modification dispute. The matter was set for a final hearing on June 30, 2005, at which time the parties came to an agreement which was announced to the court. On July 6, 2005, Respondent filed the Agreed Order with the court clerk. Respondent failed to take further action in the case. In August, 2006, Complainant requested a copy of the final order. Respondent soon realized that the order had not been signed by the judge. Due to additional delays, a final order was not entered in the matter until May 19, 2009. The delay in entry of the order prejudiced Complainants' ability to enforce the order.

By the aforementioned facts, Yvette Y. Cain has violated Rules of Professional Conduct RPC 1.3 (diligence) and 1.4 (communication), and is hereby Publicly Censured for these violations.
