PUBLIC CENSURE

A complaint was filed against Nan Shelby Calloway of Elkton, Kentucky. The Board of Professional Responsibility has determined that Respondent Ms. Calloway should be censured for the ethical violations delineated in the complaint as summarized below:

Judge Davies awarded a divorce to Respondent's client on grounds of adultery but also found Respondent's client to be guilty of an affair with Respondent. In open court Judge Davies stated "Ms. Calloway your conduct in this case is not professional. Don't ever do that again. If I hear about it, I'll report you to the Board."

By her actions Respondent violated Rules 1.7(b) and 8.4(a)(d) of the Tennessee Rules of Professional Conduct. She is hereby censured for these violations.

It is therefore ORDERED by the Board of Professional Responsibility that the Respondent is issued a Public Censure.
