BLOUNT COUNTY LAWYER CENSURED

On April 11, 2017, Charles Alphonso Carpenter, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, received a Public Censure from the Board of Professional Responsibility of the Tennessee Supreme Court.

In two separate matters, Mr. Carpenter neglected his clients' cases. Mr. Carpenter frequently failed to respond to calls, emails, and text messages from his clients, and in one instance, he changed office locations without notifying the client, resulting in a year of no communication. Mr. Carpenter also failed to appear for court hearings and depositions. Mr. Carpenter has demonstrated a pattern of neglect in violation of the Rules.

By these acts, Charles Alphonso Carpenter has violated Rule of Professional Conduct 1.3 (diligence) and 1.4 (communication) and is hereby Publicly Censured for this violation.

A Public Censure is a rebuke and warning to the attorney, but it does not affect the attorney's ability to practice law.
