NASHVILLE LAWYER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDED

By Order of the Supreme Court of Tennessee filed October 18, 2007, the law license of Jack Howell Davis, Sr. was temporarily suspended pursuant to Rules of the Supreme Court of Tennessee, upon a finding that Mr. Davis failed to respond to the Board of Professional Responsibility concerning a complaint of misconduct.

Mr. Davis may continue to represent existing clients for thirty days. Mr. Davis must cease representing all clients effective November 17, 2007, and may not accept new cases following that date. After November 17, 2007, Mr. Davis shall not use any indicia of lawyer, legal assistant, or law clerk, nor maintain a presence where the practice of law is conducted.

The Order requires Mr. Davis to notify by registered or certified mail all clients being represented in pending matters, as well as co-counsel and opposing counsel, of the Supreme Court's Order suspending his law license. Section 18 of Supreme Court Rule 9 requires Mr. Davis to deliver to all clients any papers or property to which they are entitled.

Mr. Davis may for good cause request dissolution or modification of the suspension by petition to the Supreme Court. This suspension remains in effect until dissolution or modification by the Supreme Court.
