WILLIAMSON COUNTY LAWYER CENSURED

On April 16, 2015, Eric Lyndol Davis, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, received a Public Censure from the Board of Professional Responsibility of the Tennessee Supreme Court.

Mr. Davis received three disciplinary complaints all of which detailed issues concerning his alcohol abuse. Mr. Davis communicated threats to others, was convicted of driving under the influence, and was found to have serious alcohol problems by Order of the court in a custody dispute. Additionally, Mr. Davis disclosed confidential information of a former client in litigation against the former client.

By these acts, Eric Lyndol Davis has violated Rule of Professional Conduct 1.9(c) (duties to former clients) and 8.4(b) (misconduct) and is hereby Publicly Censured for these violations.

A Public Censure is a rebuke and warning to the attorney, but it does not affect the attorney's ability to practice law.
