WILLIAMSON COUNTY LAWYER CENSURED

On April 16, 2015, Eric Lyndol Davis, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, received a Public Censure from the Board of Professional Responsibility of the Tennessee Supreme Court.

Mr. Davis received three disciplinary complaints all of which detailed issues concerning his alcohol abuse. Mr. Davis communicated threats to others, was convicted of driving under the influence, and was found to have serious alcohol problems by Order of the court in a custody dispute. Additionally, Mr. Davis disclosed confidential information of a former client in litigation against the former client.

By these acts, Eric Lyndol Davis has violated Rule of Professional Conduct 1.9(c) (duties to former clients) and 8.4(b) (misconduct) and is hereby Publicly Censured for these violations.

A Public Censure is a rebuke and warning to the attorney, but it does not affect the attorney's ability to practice law.

PUBLIC CENSURE

The above complaint was filed against Eric Lyndol Davis, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, alleging certain acts of misconduct. Pursuant to Tena. Sup. Ct. R. 9, the Board of Professional Responsibility considered these matters at its meeting on March 13, 2015.

Mr. Davis received three disciplinary complaints all of which detailed issues concerning his alcohol abuse. Mr. Davis communicated threats to others, was convicted of driving under the influence, and was found to have serious alcohol problems by Order of the court in a custody dispute. Additionally, Mr. Davis disclosed confidential information of a former client in litigation against the former client.

By these acts, Eric Lyndol Davis has violated Rule of Professional Conduct 1.9(c) (duties to former clients) and 8.4(b) (misconduct) and is hereby Publicly Censured for these violations. Additionally, Mr. Davis shall undergo an evaluation by the Tennessee Lawyer's Assistance Program and comply with any treatment program it may recommend within ninety (90) days of issuance of this Public Censure.
