DAVIDSON COUNTY LAWYER DISBARRED

Effective June 20, 2024, the Supreme Court of Tennessee ordered Robert Allen Doll, III, be permanently disbarred from the practice of law in a unanimous opinion and pay court costs.

On May 31, 2017, the Tennessee Supreme Court suspended Robert Allen Doll, III from the practice of law pursuant to Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 9, Section 22.3, based upon his conviction for two (2) counts of subornation of aggravated perjury in violation of T.C.A. §39-16-705, and one (1) count of criminal simulation in violation of T.C.A. §39-14-115(a)(1)(c) in the Circuit Court of Williamson County, Tennessee, in State of Tennessee v. Robert Allen Doll, III. The disciplinary conduct was referred to a Hearing Panel for a formal disciplinary hearing at which the sole issue to be determined was the extent of final discipline. The Panel determined the misconduct by Mr. Doll warranted disbarment. Mr. Doll appealed the judgment of the Panel to the Circuit Court, which affirmed the Panel's judgment. Thereafter, Mr. Doll appealed the judgment of the Trial Court to the Supreme Court, which affirmed the Trial Court's decision.

Mr. Doll must comply with the requirements of Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 9, Section 28, regarding the obligations and responsibilities of disbarred attorneys.
