KNOX COUNTY LAWYER CENSURED

On October 20, 2026, Nathaniel Evans, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, received a Public Censure from the Board of Professional Responsibility of the Tennessee Supreme Court.

Mr. Evans incorrectly instructed a client to electronically deposit client funds into his operating account. A few days later, Mr. Evans transferred the funds to a credit card rewards account instead of his trust account.

By these acts, Nathaniel Evans has violated Rule of Professional Conduct 1.15 (safekeeping funds) and is hereby publicly censured for this violation with the condition that he attend the Board of Professional Responsibility's next Trust Account Workshop.

A Public Censure is a rebuke and warning to the attorney, but it does not affect the attorney's ability to practice law.
