NASHVILLE ATTORNEY SUSPENDED

Neil R. Flit, a Nashville attorney, was suspended for thirty (30) days, beginning December 10, 1998, by Order of the Tennessee Supreme Court filed October 28, 1998. The Board of Professional Responsibility of the Supreme Court of Tennessee filed formal charges against Mr. Flit alleging that he engaged in a conflict of interest by representing one client adverse to an existing client; neglected clients' cases; failed to communicate with clients; and failed to accurately and timely respond to the Board of Professional Responsibility regarding complaints of misconduct and failed to maintain the required trust accounting records. Mr. Flit submitted a Conditional Guilty Plea which was approved by the Board of Professional Responsibility and the Supreme Court of Tennessee, therefore, Mr. Flit shall be suspended for thirty (30) days beginning December 10, 1998. Mr. Flit shall also have a monitor who shall make monthly reports to the Board of Professional Responsibility for a period of three months.
