WILLIAMSON COUNTY LAWYER CENSURED

On October 9, 2026, Kelli Adelaide Haas, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, received a Public Censure from the Board of Professional Responsibility of the Tennessee Supreme Court.

Ms. Haas engaged in the incorrect practice of keeping earned fees in her trust account. This resulted in the overdraft of her account when she paid the firm credit card out of her trust account.

By these acts, Kelli Adelaide Haas has violated Rule of Professional Conduct 1.15 (safekeeping funds) and is hereby publicly censured for this violation with the condition that she attend the Board of Professional Responsibility's next Trust Account Workshop.

A Public Censure is a rebuke and warning to the attorney, but it does not affect the attorney's ability to practice law.
