On September 4, 2020, the Supreme Court of Tennessee temporarily suspended Andrew Nathan Hall from the practice of law upon finding Mr. Hall failed to respond to the Board concerning a complaint of misconduct. Section 12.3 of Supreme Court Rule 9 provides for the immediate summary suspension of an attorney's license to practice law if an attorney fails to respond to a complaint of misconduct.

Mr. Hall is immediately precluded from accepting any new cases and must cease representing existing clients by October 4, 2020. After October 4, 2020, Mr. Hall shall not use any indicia of lawyer, legal assistant, or law clerk nor maintain a presence where the practice of law is conducted. Mr. Hall shall notify all clients being represented in pending matters, as well as co-counsel and opposing counsel of the Supreme Court's Order suspending his law license and deliver to all clients any papers or property to which they are entitled.

Mr. Hall must comply with the requirements of Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 9, Sections 28 and 12.3(d), regarding the obligations and responsibilities of temporarily suspended attorneys and the procedure for reinstatement.

This suspension remains in effect until dissolution or modification by the Supreme Court. Mr. Hall may for good cause request dissolution or modification of the suspension by petition to the Supreme Court.
