MORGAN COUNTY LAWYER CENSURED

On February 12, 2015, Andrew Nathan Hall, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, received a Public Censure from the Board of Professional Responsibility of the Tennessee Supreme Court.

Mr. Hall was retained to represent clients in bankruptcy proceedings. They paid a total of over $2,400 in attorney's fees and filing fees. However, for over a year, Mr. Hall took no action in the case. When the clients called Mr. Hall's office, they were repeatedly told the bankruptcy petition would be filed shortly, but nothing was done until the clients filed a disciplinary complaint against Mr. Hall.

By these acts, Andrew Nathan Hall has violated Rule of Professional Conduct 1.1 (competence), 1.3 (diligence), 1.4 (communication), and 3.2 (expediting litigation) and is hereby Publicly Censured for these violations.

A Public Censure is a rebuke and warning to the attorney, but it does not affect the attorney's ability to practice law.
