DAVIDSON COUNTY LAWYER SUSPENDED

Effective April 13, 2022, the Supreme Court of Tennessee suspended David Dwayne Harris from the practice of law for two (2) years, less seventy-five (75) days that Mr. Harris had already been suspended.

On May 1, 2020, Mr. Harris was suspended from the practice of law for two (2) years with sixty (60) days active suspension and the remainder to be probated contingent upon Mr. Harris meeting certain conditions, including a restitution requirement within the first year of his suspension. Mr. Harris failed to pay restitution as ordered, and on June 28, 2021, the Board of Professional Responsibility filed a Petition to Revoke Probation. A Hearing Panel revoked Mr. Harris's probation and imposed a two (2) year suspension as originally ordered with credit of seventy-five (75) days previously served.

Mr. Harris must comply with the requirements of Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 9, Sections 28 and 30.4, regarding the obligations and responsibilities of suspended attorneys and the procedure for reinstatement.
