SHELBY COUNTY LAWYER REINSTATED

On April 8, 2022, the Supreme Court of Tennessee reinstated Darryl Wayne Humphrey to the practice of law, effective immediately. Mr. Humphrey was suspended by the Supreme Court of Tennessee for six (6) months on September 25, 2017. Mr. Humphrey, on June 2, 2021, filed a Petition for Reinstatement to the practice of law pursuant to Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 9, Section 30.4.

A Hearing Panel found that Mr. Humphrey complied with the terms and conditions of his suspension and further found that he had demonstrated the moral qualifications, competency, and learning in the law required for the practice of law and that his resumption of the practice of law will not be detrimental to the integrity or standing of the bar or administration of justice, or subversive to the public interest. As conditions of his reinstatement, Mr. Humphrey must engage a practice monitor for one year and complete a practice and professionalism enhancement program in the first forty-five (45) days of his reinstatement.
