HENDERSON COUNTY LAWYER CENSURED

On April 18, 2013, Bradley Glenn Kirk, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, received a Public Censure from the Board of Professional Responsibility of the Tennessee Supreme Court.

In 2010, a client retained Mr. Kirk to represent him in a personal injury case. After several months, the client contacted the court clerk's office and learned that apart from filing the complaint, Mr. Kirk had taken no additional action in the case. The client attempted to contact Mr. Kirk, but his calls went unreturned.

Mr. Kirk abandoned his client's case and failed to return his file. By doing so, Mr. Kirk violated Rules of Professional Conduct 1.3 (diligence), 1.4 (communication), 1.5 (fees), 1.16 (declining and terminating representation), and 8.4 (misconduct), and is hereby Publicly Censured for these violations.

A Public Censure is a rebuke and warning to the attorney, but it does not affect the attorney's ability to practice law.
