MEMPHIS ATTORNEY PLACED ON DISABILITY

On May 23, 2006, the Supreme Court of Tennessee issued an Order transferring the law license of Keith C. Kyles of Memphis, Tennessee, to disability inactive status. Section 21 of Rule 9, Rules of the Tennessee Supreme Court, provides that if a lawyer is so incapacitated that he cannot adequately practice law, his law license may be transferred to disability inactive status. In this case, Mr. Kyles requested a transfer to disability inactive status based upon brain surgery. The Board of Professional Responsibility, by and through Disciplinary Counsel, has agreed to the transfer based upon the report of Dr. L. Madison Michael. Mr. Kyles may have his license reinstated upon showing that his disability no longer exists.
