DAVIDSON COUNTY LAWYER CENSURED

On October 8, 2018, Julie Williams Lampley, Davidson County, Tennessee, was publicly censured by Order of the Tennessee Supreme Court. The Court further ordered Ms. Lampley to pay costs and expenses to the Board of Professional Responsibility.

On February 21, 2018, a Petition for Discipline was filed against Ms. Lampley based upon her self-report immediately following her discovery that she failed to pay her 2015 annual registration fee. Ms. Lampley was administratively suspended by the Tennessee Supreme Court on November 23, 2015, based upon non-payment of her 2015 annual registration fee. Thereafter, Ms. Lampley engaged in the unauthorized practice of law until the reinstatement of her license. Ms. Lampley executed a conditional guilty plea acknowledging her conduct violated Tennessee Rules of Professional Conduct 5.5 (unauthorized practice of law).

For this violation, the Supreme Court of Tennessee publicly censured Ms. Lampley. A public censure is a rebuke and warning to the attorney, but it does not affect the attorney's ability to practice law.
