MAURY COUNTY LAWYER CENSURED

On April 30, 2019, Kevin S. Latta, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, received a Public Censure from the Board of Professional Responsibility of the Tennessee Supreme Court.

Mr. Latta represented a criminal defendant in post-trial proceedings and on appeal. Over the course of two years, he failed to respond in any way to five orders from the court of appeals instructing him to inform the court of the status of the appeal, and he failed to respond to three court orders setting deadlines to file his appellate brief. Mr. Latta also failed to adequately communicate with and respond to inquiries from his client. In mitigation, the court permitted the client's appeal to move forward.

By these acts, Mr. Latta has violated Rules of Professional Conduct 1.3 (diligence), 3.4(c) (fairness to opposing party and counsel), 1.4 (communication) and 8.4(d) (prejudice to the administration of justice) and is hereby publicly censured for these violations with the condition that he engage a practice monitor as set forth in Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 9, Section 12.9, for a period of one year for the purpose of monitoring Mr. Latta's office management.

A Public Censure is a rebuke and warning to the attorney, but it does not affect the attorney's ability to practice law.
