WILSON COUNTY LAWYER CENSURED

On July 14, 2023, Lindsey Leigh Lawrence, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, received a Public Censure from the Board of Professional Responsibility of the Tennessee Supreme Court.

Ms. Lawrence failed to pursue her client's legal objectives and did not maintain good communication with her client. An investigation also revealed that Ms. Lawrence formerly maintained a YouTube channel where she posted videos of herself smoking marijuana. Ms. Lawrence identifies herself as an attorney in these videos. By openly engaging in conduct that is criminally actionable in Tennessee, Ms. Lawrence demonstrated a lack of respect for the law and legal institutions.

By these acts, Ms. Lawrence has violated Rules of Professional Conduct 1.3 (diligence); 1.4 (communication); 8.4(b) (criminal conduct); and 8.4(d) (conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice) and is hereby Publicly Censured for these violations.

A Public Censure is a rebuke and warning to the attorney, but it does not affect the attorney's ability to practice law.
