

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF TENNESSEE
AT NASHVILLE

IN RE: WILLIAM W. LEECH, BPR NO. 012438
An Attorney Licensed to Practice Law in Tennessee
(Davidson County)

BOPR No. R-177-5-SG

No. _____

ORDER OF REINSTATEMENT

This matter is before the Court upon a Petition for Reinstatement filed by Petitioner, William W. Leech, on November 3, 2008; upon a hearing before a Hearing Panel of the Board of Professional Responsibility ("Board") on March 16, 2009; upon the Findings and Conclusions of the Hearing Panel filed on April 20, 2009 and the Board report filed May 8, 2009; and upon the entire record in this cause.

From all, of which the Court finds, pursuant to Rule 9, Section 19.3 of the Rules of the Supreme Court, that Petitioner has demonstrated by clear and convincing evidence that he has the moral qualifications, competency and learning in law required for admission to practice law in this state and that his resumption of the practice of law within this state will not be detrimental to the integrity or standing of the bar or the administration of justice, or subversive to the public interest.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that:

1. The privileges granted to the Petitioner to practice law in this state, as evidenced by the License to Practice Law issued by the Supreme Court with the advice of the Board of Law Examiners shall be, and are, hereby, reinstated, subject to the following conditions.
2. Petitioner's Tennessee Lawyer's Assistance Program (TLAP) Monitoring Agreement shall be extended through December, 2012.
2. Petitioner shall have a practice monitor through December, 2012, if Petitioner returns to private practice.
3. Petitioner shall pay to the Clerk of this Court the costs incurred herein, for all of which execution may issue, if necessary.
4. The Board shall cause notice of this reinstatement to be published.

FOR THE COURT:

Cornelia A. Clark
CORNELIA A. CLARK, JUSTICE
