LAW LICENSE OF KNOXVILLE LAWYER SUSPENDED

On October 17, 2006, the Supreme Court of Tennessee issued an order suspending the law license of David Andrew Lufkin, who last practiced law in Knoxville. This is an immediate temporary suspension issued pursuant to Section 4.3 of Rule 9, Rules of the Tennessee Supreme Court. In issuing the suspension, the Court found that Mr. Lufkin posed a threat of substantial harm to the public.

Section 4.3 provides that Mr. Lufkin may continue to represent existing clients for 30 days from the date of the suspension. He may not take any new clients. After 30 days, he must cease all representation of clients.

The suspension shall continue until further orders of the Court. Mr. Lufkin may make an application for dissolution or modification of this order as provided in Rule 9, Rules of the Tennessee Supreme Court.
