KNOX COUNTY LAWYER PLACED ON DISABILITY INACTIVE STATUS

By Order of the Tennessee Supreme Court entered October 27, 2015, the law license of Thomas F. Mabry was transferred to disability inactive status pursuant to Section 27.4 of Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 9. Mr. Mabry cannot practice law while on disability inactive status.

Mr. Mabry was also suspended by order of the Tennessee Supreme Court on December 30, 2014. Mr. Mabry has not requested nor been granted reinstatement from that suspension. To return to the practice of law, Mr. Mabry must first show by clear and convincing evidence that his disability has been removed. Second, Mr. Mabry would have to be reinstated from his suspension by the Tennessee Supreme Court. In addition to reinstatement from disability inactive status, Mr. Mabry may not return to the practice of law until after reinstatement by the Tennessee Supreme Court from this suspension.

(Knox County)

No. M2015-02036-SC-BAR-BP
BOPR No. 2015-2500-2-WM(27)

ORDER

On October 20, 2015, Thomas F. Mabry submitted to this Court a notice of disability pursuant to Tenn. Sup. Ct. R. 9, § 27.4, in which he contended that he is suffering from a disability by reason of mental or physical infirmity or illness that prevents him from responding to or defending against the disciplinary proceeding currently pending against him. On October 21, 2015, the Tennessee Board of Professional Responsibility submitted a response to Mr. Mabry's notice of disability.

Having carefully considered this matter, the Court orders that Thomas F. Mabry is immediately transferred to disability inactive status for an indefinite period and until further order of this Court and refers this matter to a hearing panel for a formal hearing to determine Mr. Mabry's capacity to continue to practice law and to respond to or defend against the complaint, pursuant to Tenn. Sup. Ct. R. 9, § 27.4(a). In such proceeding, the burden of proof shall rest upon Mr. Mabry and shall be by a preponderance of the evidence.
