NASHVILLE LAWYER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDED

On January 25, 2010, the Tennessee Supreme Court temporarily suspended the law license of Jerry Maynard, II, of Nashville, Tennessee, pursuant to Section 4.3 of Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 9. The Board of Professional Responsibility petitioned the Court to temporarily suspend Maynard's law license because he failed to respond to a complaint of ethical misconduct.

Effective January 25, 2010, Mr. Maynard is precluded from accepting any new clients and must cease representing existing clients by February 25, 2010. After February 25, 2010, Mr. Maynard shall not use any indicia of lawyer, legal assistant, or law clerk nor maintain a presence where the practice of law is conducted.

Mr. Maynard must notify all clients he represents in pending legal matters, as well as co-counsel and opposing counsel, of the Supreme Court's Order suspending his law license. Section 18 of Supreme Court Rule 9 requires Mr. Maynard to deliver to all clients any papers or property to which they are entitled.

This suspension remains in effect until dissolution or modification by the Supreme Court. Mr. Maynard may, for good cause, request dissolution or modification of the suspension by petition to the Supreme Court. If he makes such an application, a hearing to consider whether the suspension should be continued, modified or dissolved will be conducted before a panel of the Board of Professional Responsibility.
