CHATTANOOGA ATTORNEY DISBARRED BY SUPREME COURT

By Order of the Supreme Court of Tennessee entered August 23, 2006, Richard J. McAfee, a Chattanooga attorney, was disbarred from the practice of law. Mr. McAfee accepted disbarment by consent, pursuant to Section 15 of Rule 9 of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Tennessee.

Pursuant to Section 19 of Rule 9 of the Rules of the Supreme Court, Mr. McAfee will be eligible to apply for reinstatement to the practice of law after five years from the effective date of disbarment. Reinstatement would be granted only by Mr. McAfee demonstrating by clear and convincing evidence that he has the moral qualifications, competency, and learning required for admission to the practice of law and that his resumption of practice would not be detrimental to the integrity and standing of the bar or administration of justice or subversion of the public interest.

The Court further ordered that Mr. McAfee pay the costs of the disciplinary proceedings and comply in all respects with Rule 9 regarding the obligations and responsibilities of a disbarred attorney.
