DAVIDSON COUNTY LAWYER CENSURED

On July 14, 2025, Mitchell Ray Miller, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, received a Public Censure from the Board of Professional Responsibility of the Tennessee Supreme Court.

Mr. Miller was hired to probate an estate. The client paid a fee of $2,996.50. Respondent met with the client but never filed a petition to probate the estate. Mr. Miller failed to respond to four communications from the client over the course of one month. The client hired new counsel to file the petition to probate the estate.

By the aforementioned acts, Mitchell Ray Miller has violated Rules of Professional Conduct 1.3 (diligence) and 1.4 (communication) and is hereby Publicly Censured for these violations with the condition that he make restitution to the client in the amount of $2,996.50 within 90 days.

A Public Censure is a rebuke and warning to the attorney, but it does not affect the attorney's ability to practice law.
