DAVIDSON COUNTY LAWYER REINSTATED

By Order of the Tennessee Supreme Court entered October 28, 2022, Nathan Scott Moore was reinstated to the active practice of law with conditions.

On April 14, 2014, Nathan Scott Moore was suspended by the Supreme Court of Tennessee for two (2) years with three (3) months served as an active suspension and the remainder on probation. Mr. Moore filed a Petition for Reinstatement to the practice of law pursuant to Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 9, Section 30.4(d) on October 1, 2021. After a final hearing on the merits, a Hearing Panel found Mr. Moore had demonstrated by clear and convincing evidence that he had the moral qualifications, competency, and learning in law required for admission to practice law in this state, and his resumption of the practice of law within the state would not be detrimental to the integrity and standing of the bar or the administration of justice, or subversive to the public interest.

The Hearing Panel conditioned Mr. Moore's reinstatement to the active practice of law upon his engagement of a practice monitor for a period of one (1) year and compliance with a monitoring agreement as recommended by the Tennessee Lawyer Assistance Program (TLAP).
