DAVIDSON COUNTY LAWYER SUSPENDED

On June 5, 2018, the Tennessee Supreme Court suspended Casey Eugene Moreland from the practice of law until further orders of the Court pursuant to Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 9, Section 22.3. Mr. Moreland was suspended based upon pleading guilty to obstruction of an official proceeding, conspiracy to retaliate against a witness, victim, or informant, conspiracy to commit theft, embezzlement, or conversion of over $5,000 in funds from an organization receiving over $10,000 in federal benefits, destruction of records or documents with the intent to obstruct a federal investigation, and tampering with a witness by corrupt persuasion.

The Supreme Court ordered the Board to institute a formal proceeding to determine the extent of final discipline to be imposed as a result of Mr. Moreland being found guilty.

On April 6, 2017, Mr. Moreland was temporarily suspended from the practice of law by the Tennessee Supreme Court upon finding that he poses a threat of substantial harm to the public. That suspension remains in effect. On April 4, 2017, Mr. Moreland resigned from his position as General Sessions Judge in Davidson County, Tennessee.

Mr. Moreland must comply with Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 9, Section 28, regarding the obligations and responsibilities of suspended attorneys.
