ALABAMA LAWYER CENSURED

On July 22, 2016, Lance William Parr, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, received a Public Censure from the Board of Professional Responsibility of the Tennessee Supreme Court. As a condition of the Public Censure, Mr. Parr is required to reimburse $600.00 in fees to his former client within 90 days.

Mr. Parr discontinued representation of a client due to his prior disbarment. Mr. Parr failed to provide the client file or promptly refund unearned fees to the former client. Mr. Parr also failed to provide a response to the disciplinary complaint against him.

By these acts, Lance William Parr has violated Rules of Professional Conduct 1.16(d) (terminating representation) and 8.1(b) (disciplinary matters) and he is hereby Publicly Censured for these violations.

A Public Censure is a rebuke and warning to the attorney, but it does not affect the attorney's ability to practice law.
