DAVIDSON COUNTY LAWYER DISBARRED

On June 5, 2019, the Supreme Court of Tennessee disbarred Judson Wheeler Phillips from the practice of law effective immediately. Mr. Phillips must pay the court costs within ninety days of the entry of the Order of Enforcement.

Mr. Phillips consented to disbarment because he could not successfully defend himself on charges alleged in forty-one (41) pending disciplinary complaints. Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 9, Section 23, requires that Mr. Phillips' consent to disbarment be maintained under seal.

Mr. Phillips was previously disbarred on August 24, 2018. He has not been reinstated from that disbarment.

Mr. Phillips must comply with the requirements of Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 9, Sections 28 and 30, regarding the obligations and responsibilities of disbarred attorneys and the procedures for reinstatement.
