SHELBY COUNTY LAWYER REINSTATED

On December 19, 2017, the Supreme Court of Tennessee conditionally reinstated Mark L. Pittman to the practice of law. Mr. Pittman had been disbarred by the Supreme Court of Tennessee on May 24, 2006. Mr. Pittman filed a Petition for Reinstatement to the practice of law pursuant to Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 9, Section 30.4.

A Hearing Panel found that Mr. Pittman complied with the terms and conditions of his disbarment, and further found that he had demonstrated the moral qualifications required for the practice of law, and that his resumption of the practice of law will not be detrimental to the integrity or standing of the bar or administration of justice, or subversive to the public interest. Based upon the Hearing Panel's recommendation, the Supreme Court conditionally reinstated Mr. Pittman's license to practice law. Prior to his reinstatement becoming effective, Mr. Pittman must successfully complete the Tennessee Bar Examination and the Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination in order to demonstrate his competency and learning in the law. As conditions of his reinstatement, Mr. Pittman must have a practice monitor for one year, a Tennessee Lawyers Assistance Program monitoring agreement for one year, and pay $2,500 to the Tennessee Lawyers Fund for Client Protection.

Mr. Pittman must pay the costs of the reinstatement proceeding.
