CAMPBELL COUNTY LAWYER CENSURED

On July 9, 2015, Clement Dale Potter, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, received a Public Censure from the Board of Professional Responsibility of the Tennessee Supreme Court.

In 2012, Mr. Potter, an assistant public defender, gave his client, who was a criminal defendant charged with attempted rape, incorrect advice regarding the requirements of the sex offender registry and lifetime community suspension. Thus, Mr. Potter failed to take reasonable steps to ensure that his client had all of the relevant information needed to make an intelligent decision as to whether to plead guilty. Based on Mr. Potter's erroneous advice, the Tennessee Court of Criminal Appeals allowed his client to withdraw his guilty plea.

By these acts, Mr. Potter has violated Rule of Professional Conduct 1.1 (competence), 1.3 (diligence) and 1.4 (communication), and is hereby Publicly Censured for these violation(s).

A Public Censure is a rebuke and warning to the attorney, but it does not affect the attorney's ability to practice law.
