The Suffrage Map Early in August, 1920

"Truth crushed to the earth will rise again" — is illustrated in this lovely picture of Mrs Jas. S. Pinedone, President General of the Southern Women's League for the Rejection of the Susan B. Anthony Amendment, who as grandniece of John C. Calhauer upholds the Confederates' emblematical of ~~Confederate~~ States Rights fight for the defeat of the Federal Amendment, who leftails the Veterans who "fought and bled" for ~~Confederate~~ States Rights; standing to his left, holding the flag of the League, is Miss Josephine A. Pearson, Pres. of the Texas Division of the Southern Women's League for the Rejection of the Susan B. Anthony Amendment, who led the fight in ~~Georgia~~ ^{South} ~~Georgia~~ ^{Georgia} which became the Battle Ground of the Nation. August 1920.
