JACKSON LAWYER REINSTATED TO THE PRACTICE OF LAW

On October 13, 2005, the Supreme Court of Tennessee entered an Order reinstating the law license of Charles Mark Pullen.

On December 16, 2002, the Supreme Court of Tennessee entered an Order temporarily suspending the law license of Mr. Pullen for posing a substantial threat of harm to the public for Mr. Pullen's non-compliance with his monitoring agreement with Tennessee Lawyers Assistance Program. On August 1, 2005, Mr. Pullen's counsel filed a Petition for Reinstatement. On August 24, 2005, a Hearing Panel heard Mr. Pullen's Petition for Reinstatement and recommended that Mr. Pullen be reinstated to the practice of law based upon the following conditions: (1) Mr. Pullen extend his Tennessee Lawyers Assistance Program contract for five (5) years; (2) Mr. Pullen practice with at least one other attorney for his first year of reinstatement; and (3) Mr. Pullen have a practice monitor and a trust account monitor. The Supreme Court of Tennessee ordered the reinstatement of Mr. Pullen's law license by Order filed October 13, 2005.
