MEMPHIS LAWYER CENSURED

On November 1, 2007, Charles Mark Pullen of Memphis, Tennessee, received a Public Censure from the Board of Professional Responsibility. Pullen was given notice of the Censure and did not request a hearing. The Censure was based upon Pullen's non-compliance with his Tennessee Lawyers Assistance Program contract. Pullen's non-compliance with his Tennessee Lawyers Assistance Program contract violates Rules 8.4(d) of the Tennessee Rules of Professional Conduct. The Censure declares Pullen's actions to be unethical but does not limit his right to practice law.
