On June 15, 2007, Tennessee Lawyers Assistance Program (TLAP) reported to the Board that the Respondent was non-compliant with his TLAP contract. By letter dated August 17, 2007, TLAP advised that the Respondent subsequently entered into a new monitoring agreement with TLAP extended through 2012.

On December 16, 2002, the Respondent was temporarily suspended by the Supreme Court for posing a substantial threat of irreparable harm to the public for the Respondent's non-compliance with his TLAP contract. After a reinstatement hearing, the Supreme Court reinstated the Respondent based upon, in part, the condition that the Respondent extend and comply with his TLAP contract.

The Respondent is hereby publicly censured.
