PUTMAN COUNTY LAWYER CENSURED

On July 16, 2019, Elizabeth Ann Shipley, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, received a Public Censure from the Board of Professional Responsibility of the Tennessee Supreme Court.

This public censure arose out of two disciplinary complaints brought against Ms. Shipley. In the first disciplinary complaint, Ms. Shipley was tardy in the payment of restitution to a former client which had been made a condition of an earlier public censure.

The second disciplinary complaint arose out of an overdraft on Ms. Shipley's trust account. On October 22, 2018, Ms. Shipley received $500 from clients in connection with a custody case. The funds were for the pre-payment of the clients' portion of attorney fees to the court appointed guardian ad litem. Ms. Shipley initially deposited the funds into escrow, but later transferred them to her operating account. On December 3, 2018, Ms. Shipley instructed her assistant to forward the funds to the Court Clerk's Office but failed to specify that the funds were no longer in escrow. Ms. Shipley's assistant issued a check to the Court Clerk's Office on the trust account, resulting in the overdraft.

By these acts, Elizabeth Ann Shipley has violated Rules of Professional Conduct 1.15 (safeguarding client property) and 8.4(d) (conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice) and is hereby Publicly Censured for these violations.

A Public Censure is a rebuke and warning to the attorney, but it does not affect the attorney's ability to practice law.

PUBLIC CENSURE

The above complaints were filed against Elizabeth Ann Shipley, #32721, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, alleging certain acts of misconduct. Pursuant to Tenn. Sup. Ct. R. 9, the Board of Professional Responsibility considered these matters at its meetings on December 14, 2018 and June 14, 2019.

In the first disciplinary complaint, Ms. Shipley was tardy in the payment of restitution to a former client which had been made a condition of an earlier public censure.

The second disciplinary complaint arose out of an overdraft on Ms. Shipley's trust account. On October 22, 2018, Ms. Shipley received $500 from clients in connection with a custody case. The funds were for the pre-payment of the clients' portion of attorney fees to the court appointed guardian ad litem. Ms. Shipley initially deposited the funds into escrow, but later transferred them to her operating account. On December 3, 2018, Ms. Shipley instructed her assistant to forward the funds to the Court Clerk's Office but failed to specify that the funds were no longer in escrow. Ms. Shipley's assistant issued a check to the Court Clerk's Office on the trust account, resulting in the overdraft.

By these acts, Elizabeth Ann Shipley has violated Rules of Professional Conduct 1.15 (safeguarding client property) and 8.4(d) (conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice) and is hereby Publicly Censured for these violations.
