RUTHERFORD COUNTY LAWYER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDED

On February 27, 2023, the Supreme Court of Tennessee temporarily suspended Andre Chase Rabideau from the practice of law upon finding that Mr. Rabideau failed to respond to the Board of Professional Responsibility concerning a complaint of professional misconduct. Section 12.3 of Supreme Court Rule 9 provides for the immediate suspension of an attorney's license to practice law when the attorney fails to respond to a complaint of misconduct.

Mr. Rabideau is immediately precluded from accepting any new cases, and he must cease representing existing clients by March 29, 2023. After March 29, 2023, Mr. Rabideau shall not use any indicia of lawyer, legal assistant, or law clerk nor maintain a presence wherein the practice of law is conducted. Mr. Rabideau must notify all clients being represented in pending matters, as well as co-counsel and opposing counsel, of the Supreme Court's Order suspending his law license, and is required to deliver to all clients any papers or property to which they are entitled.

Mr. Rabideau must comply with the requirements of Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 9, Sections 28 and 12.3(d), regarding the obligations and responsibilities of temporarily suspended attorneys and the procedure for reinstatement.

This suspension remains in effect until dissolution or modification by the Supreme Court. Mr. Rabideau may, for good cause, request dissolution or modification of the suspension by petition to the Supreme Court.
