CLARKSVILLE ATTORNEY PLACED ON DISABILITY

On June 7, 2007, the Supreme Court of Tennessee issued an Order transferring the law license of Van Lewis Riggins, Jr., of Clarksville, Tennessee, to disability inactive status. Section 21 of Rule 9, Rules of the Tennessee Supreme Court, provides that if a lawyer is so incapacitated that he cannot adequately practice law, his law license may be transferred to disability inactive status. In this case, Mr. Riggins, through counsel, moved the Supreme Court for a transfer to disability inactive status. Mr. Riggins will remain on disability inactive status until such time as the Court judges him fit for practice and active status is returned.
