

IN DISCIPLINARY DISTRICT III
OF THE
BOARD OF PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY
OF THE
SUPREME COURT OF TENNESSEE

IN RE: RANDY GEORGE ROGERS,
BPR No. 5630

FILE NO. 29883-3-JV

---

PUBLIC CENSURE

The above complaint was filed against Randy George Rogers, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, alleging certain acts of misconduct. Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 9, the Board of Professional Responsibility considered these matters at its regularly scheduled meeting.

The Respondent appeared in Circuit Court on January 19, 2007, on a motion to set aside an order of protection. When the court concluded another matter, the Respondent attempted to gain the attention of the court to advise that the matter would be passed. The court made a statement to the effect that it would not consider the matter at that time since the court was in recess. In frustration, the Respondent threw his file on counsel table, made a gesture toward the judge with his middle finger and stated "f___ you". The judge did not witness the gesture nor hear the remark. The Respondent immediately went to the judge's chambers and apologized for his conduct and wrote a letter of apology to the judge dated January 26, 2007. On February 5, 2007, the court filed a Show Cause Order charging the Respondent with criminal contempt on September 26, 2007, and the Respondent was found guilty of criminal contempt, fined $50 and sentenced to serve ten days in jail probated for three years.

By the aforementioned facts, Randy George Roger, has violated Rules of Professional Conduct 8.4(b)(d) and is hereby Publicly Censured for these violations.
