TENNESSEE LAWYER CENSURED

On October 7, 2026, Curtis McLendon Rogers, an attorney licensed in Tennessee, practicing in Virginia, received a Public Censure from the Board of Professional Responsibility of the Tennessee Supreme Court.

Mr. Rogers was co-representative of a probate estate and also decided to complete the legal work for the estate charging an hourly fee. Mr. Rodgers was ordered to file an Accounting after a Motion to Compel Accounting was filed. The Court determined that the Accounting filed by Mr. Rogers was incomplete/inadequate, did not contain actual check images, and revealed that he has paid himself or his law firm over $60,000.00 in "legal fees" out of the estate funds. These fees were not approved by the Court. Mr. Rogers was ordered to file a supplemental accounting which he failed to do. The Court entered a judgement against Mr. Rogers and the co-representative on July 16, 2025, in the amount of $74,335.21 to be paid to the estate.

By these acts, Mr. Rogers has violated Rules of Professional Conduct 3.4 (fairness to opposing party and counsel), and 8.4 (misconduct) and is hereby Publicly Censured for these violations.

A Public Censure is a rebuke and warning to the attorney, but it does not affect the attorney's ability to practice law.
