ANDERSON COUNTY LAWYER CENSURED

On January 6, 2014, Raymond Andrew Shirley, Jr., an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, received a Public Censure from the Board of Professional Responsibility of the Tennessee Supreme Court.

Mr. Shirley failed to inform his client that he was suspended from the practice of law on September 27, 2012. By placing into his trust account the $1,500 that his client had provided to him to secure the return of her car, and by requesting documents from her in July of 2013, Mr. Shirley practiced law while he was suspended.

By these acts, Raymond Andrew Shirley, Jr., has violated Rules of Professional Conduct 1.4 (communication), and 5.5 (unauthorized practice of law) and is hereby Publicly Censured for these violations.

A Public Censure is a rebuke and warning to the attorney, but it does not affect the attorney's ability to practice law.
