DAVIDSON COUNTY LAWYER CENSURED

On October 21, 2020, C. LeAnn Smith, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, received a Public Censure from the Board of Professional Responsibility of the Tennessee Supreme Court.

In a custody matter in which she was a party, Ms. Smith lied under oath in a deposition in response to six questions about her use of alcohol in the presence of the child. The subject matter of Ms. Smith's testimony was relevant to the pending custody matter. In mitigation, Ms. Smith's conduct was not done in the representation of a client, and Ms. Smith admitted her conduct under oath in her trial testimony in the same proceeding.

By these acts, C. LeAnn Smith has violated Rule of Professional Conduct 8.4(c) (conduct involving dishonesty) and 8.4(d) (prejudice to the administration of justice) and is hereby Publicly Censured with the condition that within sixty days, she schedule and complete an assessment with the Tennessee Lawyers Assistance Program and follow any recommendation made by TLAP.

A Public Censure is a rebuke and warning to the attorney, but it does not affect the attorney's ability to practice law.
