MEMPHIS LAWYER PUBLICLY CENSURED

On October 24, 2006, the Board of Professional Responsibility issued a Public Censure to Steven T. Stanton of Memphis, Tennessee. He did not request a hearing.

On March 17, 2006, in "The Matter of Jane Stanton" pending in the Probate Court of Ingham County, Michigan, No. 03-215-CA, a bench warrant was issued on Respondent for failure to comply with a court order in relation to Respondent's Conservatorship of Jane Stanton. Respondent failed to appear in violation of court order in violation of Rule 8.4(a)(d)(g) of the Tennessee Rules of Professional Conduct.

A public censure is a form of discipline that declares the conduct of the lawyer improper but does not limit the lawyer's right to practice law.
